Defendant.)	Stipulation to Release the Defendant on Her Own Recognizance

On May 14, 2014, the Court convened a telephonic status conference in the above-referenced matter. Jace Zack, Deputy County Attorney, Stephen Glazer and Carolyn M. "Cammie" Nichols, attorneys for the Defendant, attended. After discussion on the record concerning Ms. Welch's sentencing, the parties stipulate to the following:

1. Ms. Welch is presently incarcerated in Estancia, New Mexico at the Torrance County Detention Facility (TCDF) pursuant to a writ of habeas corpus from Arizona state custody, pending her sentencing on June 2, 2014 in the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico in USA v. McCluskey, Province and Welch, 10-CR-2734-JH.
2. Ms. Welch is currently considered a prisoner of the State of Arizona.
3. On or about May 30, 2014, the Honorable Judge Steven F. Conn will order Ms. Welch be released on her own recognizance.
4. A state sentencing date will be set shortly after the June 2, 2014 federal sentencing.

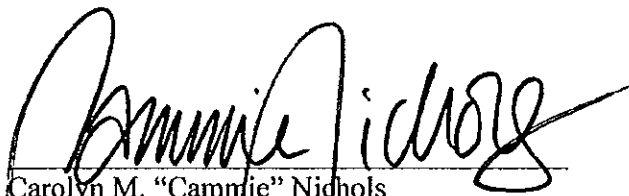

S8015CR201000821

5. Ms. Welch will be transferred into the federal custody of the United States Marshal's Service via a detainer immediately upon her release from state custody, thereby becoming a federal detainee. Ms. Welch will at all times subsequent to her release from Arizona state custody remain in a facility as determined by the U.S. Marshal's Service, in federal custody.

6. The parties stipulate that the court enter an order releasing Ms. Welch on her own recognizance as of May 30, 2014.
